

Palgrave launches a new book series entitled
“Palgrave Studies in Sustainable Business:
In Association with Future Earth”.

Series editors are

Paul Shrivastava (Future Earth & Concordia University Montreal) and Laszlo Zsolnai (Corvinus University of Budapest & European SPES Institute, Leuven).

Sustainability in business is increasingly becoming the forefront issue for researchers, practitioners and companies the world over. Engaging with this immense challenge, Future Earth is a major international research platform of academics from a range of disciplines, with a common goal to support and achieve global sustainability. This series will define a clear space for the work of Future Earth Finance and Economics Knowledge-Action Network. Publishing key research with a holistic and trans-disciplinary approach, it intends to help reinventing business and economic models for the Anthropocene, geared towards engendering sustainability and creating ecologically conscious organizations.

Keywords

Business in the Anthropocene, Progressive Business Models, Sustainable Financial System, Development Goals & Socio-Ecological Responsibility, Caring Entrepreneurship, Corporate Social, Environmental and Sustainability Performance Management, Sustainable Consumption and Production Systems, Sustainable/Responsible Investing, Circular Economy, Sustainability and Green Accounting, Linking Bio-economies to Macroeconomics

Advisory Board

- Cary Krosinsky, Director, Network for Sustainable Financial Markets and Lecturer, Center for Business and the Environment, Yale University, USA
- Thomas Walker, Professor and Co-Director, David O’Brien Center for Sustainable Enterprise, John Molson School of Business, Concordia University, Montreal, Canada
- David Wasieleski, Chair, Management and Marketing Department, Palumbo Donahue School of Business, Duquesne University, and Social Division Chair, Academy of Management, USA
- Nick Robbins, Co-Director, UNEP Financial Inquiry, Geneva, Switzerland
- Tetsuzo Yasunari, Professor and Director General, Research Institute for Humanity and Nature (RIHN), Kyoto, Japan
- Bimal Arora, Founding Director, Centre for Responsible Business, New Delhi, India

